Item 3: Disciplinary Information¹

There are no legal or disciplinary events material to the evaluation of Mr. Stachnick.

Item 4: Other Business Activities

Mr. Stachnick is a licensed insurance agent/broker. He may offer insurance products and receive customary fees as a result of insurance sales. A conflict of interest may arise as these insurance sales may create an incentive to recommend products based on the compensation earned. To mitigate this potential conflict, Mr. Stachnick, as a fiduciary, will act in the client's best interest.

Item 5: Additional Compensation

Mr. Stachnick has received assistance covering transition-related legal, software and accounts transfer costs from Charles Schwab & Co. Inc. ("Schwab") in order to transition his business to the Schwab custodial platform. Our firm examined this potential conflict of interest when our firm chose to recommend Schwab and has determined that the recommendation is in the best interest of our firm's clients and satisfies our fiduciary obligations, including our duty to seek best execution.
